FOOTSTEPS OF THE GROUP OF SEVEN

Outdoor Art Education Workshop

KSOEEC along with local artist Pierre AJ Sabourin, are offering students a unique art education experience this spring.

The program includes:

- Activities to connect students with nature
- Lectures on art in the Killarney area, including the Group of Seven
- Completion of multiple 'en plein air' painting pieces
- Individual student conferencing and critiques
- All painting materials needed for the workshop

Programs are available for both day and overnight trips at regular cost.

For more information please contact KSOEEC at 705-698-9039

Pierre AJ Sabourin is a professional en plein air landscape painter who follows the Canadian School of Painting in spirit, philosophy, and practice. He was mentored by group of seven member, Arthur Lismer, whose influence has resonated throughout Pierre's life. He is the Artist in Residence for Killarney Provincial Park and hosts painting workshops for art groups, individuals and schools across Ontario. Sabourin makes his home in Killarney at Sunset Rock Studios, overlooking the beautiful LaCloche Mountains.
